Prelude ...

The yearbook is often the only tangible remembrance of high school days . . . classes . . . teams . . . bull sessions . . . begging for excused tardies . . . school dances . . . assembly programs . . . and friends. Its birth was for this purpose. But in the war year of 1943, a new theme has come to the front, as it has in all aspects of the American way. High schools are geared for victory as never before. From the high school march the young men and women to the battle and production fronts. To this new mold of life into which they have advanced, the staff presents the 1943 Black and Gold.

Distributive Education

Distributive Education provides vocational training for the field of distribution Juniors and Seniors, preferably the latter, who are sixteen years old, receive technical and general training in classes especially patterned to give practical knowledge for "in-store" jobs. Trainees spend a part of each day in a local store where managers and department heads further the training toward permanent employment after graduation

ACK GES AN

Again this year the 'Black and Gold' is a student publication. Not only is the yearbook planned and written within the three high schools, and much of the art work, layout, and photography done by students but, for the twelfth consecutive year printed in its entirety in the Reynolds High School Print Shop

All Linotype and hand composition and make-up, cylinder press makeready and running, folding, stitchis, and ming and casing is done by students and instructor in the Printing and critical

Every printing student did his part in producing this book. The work of Bill Bradford on Linotype composition and press feeding and Jack Grishaw on page make-up was outstanding. Lester Puryear did fine work on press makeready. Other students also did exceptionally good work on various operations.

The stamping of student's names on the covers was done by the members of the Printers Club. Jack Grishaw was chosen as the recipient of the Printers Club award for 1943

THE REYNOLDS HI PLAYERS

This year the Reynolds Hi Players, under Miss Ruth Froutman's supervision, have presented six one-act plays two comedies, a war-time drama, a tragedy of mountain folk, an old-fashioned melodrama, and an eighteenth century fantasy

Miss Troutman, director for the past two years, arranged for the first time to have two branches in this organization. Meeting during the last period on Wednesday afternoon, the larger section planned, cast, and re hearsed five plays: "Archie," "The Beau of Bath," "Eternal Life," "In a Hotel Lobby," and "The Pink Dress Another division was formed in the second semester to accommodate those who were interested in dramatics and could not join the regular group because of difficulties in their schedules These students met in the regular Thurs day morning club period and gave the final production the old-fashioned melodrama entitled "Fireman, Save My Child

The two sets of officers elected by the members of the Wednesday afternoon and the Thursday morning dramateers, respectively, are as follows: president, Marjone Patten: vice-president, Gay Williams, secretary-treasurer, Charles Gibson; and president, Pat Kelly; vice-president Charles Gibson; secretary-treasurer, Martha Jean Yoke-ley

To be eligible for the troupe a student must meet two requirements. (1) he must be recommended by his English teacher. (2) he must show some dramatic ability before the faculty advisor

All members of the troupe are qualified for induction into the Dramatic Honor Society which Mrs. Majorie Stephenson, Miss Troutman's predecessor, formed in 1939 To be honored with this distinction, a Revnolds Hi Player must have a 'B' subject average or better, an "A on deportment, qualities of leadership, an outstanding character, and a pleasant attitude. Also a candidate must have performed in a major role of a long production or in two major roles of one act plays given by the group and he must have done a sufficient amount of backstage work to classify him as a well-rounded trouper

One in the audience hardly realizes how much credit for a fine program should go to these backstage workers The acting on stage is only half of the labor that goes into a presentation. There are usually more people backstage than in the cast. The list of the people who carry on the production jobs is as follows, a student director who suggests improvements to the cast, a publicity manager who "spreads the word around" that a play is coming, a committee with two or three members who hang posters in the halls, a stage manager who arranges the sets; a property manager who collects the items necessary for the plot; a costume manager who supervises the cast's clothes: a program chairman and his assistants who give out programs in the audience; and a make-up man who puts the "greasepaint" on the actors before the curtain rises

THE MONOGRAM CLUB

The Monogram Club was organized for boys who have earned letters for athletic play or for being manager of a team

The club has set as its standards a program to better school spirit, to increase ideals of high sportsmanship, to promote worthy school activities, to promote worthy athletic activities, and to provide a medium between the student body and all athletic teams

Backwardness is indeed not a trait of the Monogram organization. The school dances have been one of its inventions along with numerous other activities. The annual Monogram initiation is a much heralded affair and looked forward to by students as one of the feature attractions if the year Principal C. R. Joyner, co-operating with the officers of the club, sets a date each year for the paddle-and-red-bow-tie parade, which is usually held in the late days of the school year in order to give new members a chance to enter. The Monogram initiation is the symbolism of the importance gained by the monogram winners. No other group in school is honored with this privilege.

Faculty advisor for the boys is Mr H C. (Joby) Hawn who has been in charge of the organization for several years. Mr Hawn, who is director of athletics at Reynolds and coach of the Reynolds baseball nine, has taken a great deal of interest in the activities of the honor class of letter-winners and has belped very much in keeping things going with the boys

Co-operation with school heads and the student government has been one of the club's standards since organization Its members, and the club as a whole, have attempted to raise standards of leadership scholarship, character and sportsmanship among the members of the athletic teams and among the student body Seldom does a member appear before the Council for a major offense at school although, as usual with high school boys, minor offenses are always present. The club has attempted to cooperate fully with faculty members and the Athletic Council, which is led by the club's own sponsor. Coach Hawn

The Monogram Club elected as their officers for the first semester the following. Dickie Smith, president, Dale Schultz, vice-president, John Welfare, secretary, and Tom Joyce, treasurer Elected at the beginning of school these officers served until the middle of the school year, when they were replaced

The next semester Tom Chambers served as president, Bill Ball was elected as vice-president. Norman White-heart served as secretary, and Marvin Crater became the most wealthy member of the organization by occupying the treasurers office It was never determined whether Albert Stuart should remain from last year as mascot, although it is imagined that he would have received no opposition. Thus, we name Albert Stuart as mascot

This year for the first time the list of Black Demon athletics was cut down to five sports with the disbanding of the golf squad. The list of members, however, fatled to decrease and goes on record as one of the largest in history

HANES PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1943

Virginia Holcomb, Prophet

There will be a reunion of the June of the

I boarded a plane at Kelly Field for Winston-Salem. A cab was waiting, and who should be driving it but Carlyle Hayes We had a wonderful chat about old times

I was greeted very warmly at Hanes High by Frances and "Gerry' Higgins After everyone recovered from the first excitement, Nelson Davis, our president, now a minister, suggested that we spend the evening hearing what everybody had been doing Ed Aldridge is operating Aldridge's "Beauty Parlor and has employed linex Roberson, Doris Southern, and Etha Brantley We found that Joe Joyce is operating a "Silver Polish Company

Jimmy Ball, who owns a six-ring circus, has employed Marjorie Bodenham er. Betrel Hudspeth and Marilyn Lewis to do acrobatic stants Eddie Moore has recently returned from Atlantic ( where he judged a beauty contest, with the aid of Kyle Landingham and Kenneth Fansler Frank Johnson operates a drug store James Blakely is his soda jerker Alvin Thomas took the place of Jimmy Scribner in his famous fun making "Johnson Family Sadye Hauser and Virginia Holcomb have reached the height of their ambition by playing with "Minnie Pearl", on the Grand Ole Opera Bill Stewart and Albert Thomas own the Blue Moon dairy, and have employed Billy Long, Robert Clayton, and Richard Woodruff as helpers. The famous trio, Amele Holder, "Flip" Phillips, and Betty Ruth Baker sing with Roy Acuff and his Smoky Mountain Boys." Peggy Carter is Dean of Women at W. C. U. N. C.

We found that E. W Hoots and Polly" Fishel are dancing partners for the T B sanitorium. Jack Gordon and Robert Gray are operating the "White Plains" polo field. Helen Brown and John Tillotson have been happily martied for four years It was interesting to find that Sarah Swain and Virginia Cardwell are photographers for "Life" Magazine

Again we found that B D Archer is leading the American Legion Band, T L Meadows has recently been appointed head of the Junior Commandos. Dotis West is editing the annual at Peabody Institute Mrs. John Petree, the former Dottie Lou Flynt, lives in Atlanta. Carroll Poplin is sports editor for the New York Times. Elbert Cooke and Fred Duggins seem to be making a good job of playing together as Henry Aldrich and Homer Brown.

Another surprise came when we heard that James Maners was teaching American History, and Bill Inabinet majoring in Spanish. Who should step up next but Roland Burke, who is an advisor to Lovelorn. Margie Harris is singing in a night club in Kernersville. Paul Shelton has recently been employed by Harrell's studio.

Helen Hartness stated that she is thoroughly enjoying her work coaching the Mineral Springs Football team. We found that Bernard Cottee and Charles Morgan are partners in the "Moonlight Bakery", and have employed Homer Carter, Phillip Vernon, and Shelby Thomasson. What do you think Harold Smith is doing? He is running "Smith's Poultry Farm," and is doing very well it. Lawrence has taken a group of Cart Scouts and is teaching them to fly nirplanes. Quite a responsibility!

We were very happy to hear that we had another preacher in our group Richard Carper, who is pastor of a large tild if the asser In Vitti choir director at Richard's church. Opal Rid Combassic en addid book is coaching athletics at the hospital in Mersonton Hiller Stermer in is a kinder garden for childern 16 and 17 years old Next we found that Marian Sealey has opened a dress shop and has Doris Coleman, Frances Sigman, Margaret Rikard, and Nell Wagoner as models Frank Walker is a pitcher for the "Yankees." Robert Scott has finally made the football team at State Wayne Lowdermilk has recently been appointed as George Antheil's successor Ed Lin ville is running a filling station near Lewisville

Guelda Kirby is filling a most important position by cutting paper dolls for the orphange. Talmadge Welch is now manager of a large baseball club of which Vernon Cartner, Bill Shelton Tommy Mock, and Charles McIver are star players. Margaret Welborn is matron at the Children's Home Kenneth Saunders and Warren Chilton are working hand in hand in athletics. Kenneth drives the bus for the team to travel, and Warren is referee

Betty Smith stated that she now has a program on WSJS at 9-00 o clock every night, reciting poetry from Tennyson as a special feature. "Polly Thomas and Frances Sprinkle have a "Canary Farm" William Bennett and Gray Tatum own the "White Swan swimming pool, where many of the Hanes High people hang out. "Kat Archer instructs in Hollywood on the use of cosmetics Last but not least we found that Estlene White and Ina Smith are running "Pine Wood" College for girls, where Sudie Hanes is Home Ecteacher, and Mary Morgan is orchestra

HANES HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1943

Doris Coleman, historian

In the fall of 1939 a small group of very green Freshmen came to this building the first thing that bothered us was the season time. We hadn't been used to anything like this

Next came those people called "policemen", and boy! were we scared of them? Finally we passed over this year of rush, and, learned by the aid of teachers, classmates, and "cops", we began to like school life well

As sophomores, we got into the full swing of extra-curricular activities such as dramatics, baseball, basketball, football, tennis, and various clubs. In our class we had some athletic stars. This year passed by before we knew it, leaving great excitement

When we became Juniors, we felt very important to our school. This year we supplied monitors, aldermen, club officers, and various outstanding people in other activities.

After the first semester, we looked forward to that gala event, the Junior-Senior. We entertained the Seniors at a formal dance All of us had loads of fun The rest of the year we entertained and were entertained We looked forward to next year as Seniors—and graduation

We have now come to our last year. The first semester was very interesting, with our boys winning the State B. Championship for the third year, and the Juniors entertaining us with a desightful barn dance.

Many of our one-time freshman have now become outstanding students in the various departments of the school Among them we find C. H. Duncan, mayor of the school. William Bennett, judge of our Student Government. Doris West. Editor-in-chief of the Black and Gold, Sadye Hauser, Editor of the Pine Whispers

Next come the members of the National Honor Society These people are Estlene White, Jimmy Ball, Sadye Hauser, William Bennett, Doris West, Earl Sandefur, Kenneth Fansler, Edward Aldridge, and Dottle Lou Flynt

We elected Nelson Davis, President, Roland Burke, Vice-President, Carroll Poplin, Secretary, Frank Walker, Treasurer

Doris West, Sadye Hauser, Carroll Poplin, and Dottie Lou Flynt are members of the Quill and Scroll Rominger Furniture Company, Inc.

Three Reasons For Our Successful Boys And Students Department

- 1. Long experience in studying the needs and preferences of boys and students
- 2. Large assortments from the best lines in America.
- 3. Salespeople who both know how and love to serve boys and students

Dottie Lou Flynt has not only won a high rating in the Quili and Scroll, but also first place in a Fire Prevention essay contest

Jimmy Ball passed a State Test and was admitted to Duke University

Again, we find Marian Sealey, the prettiest girl in our Senior Class, as chosen by some of our local people

Now that this year, our last, is over, we are left with interesting memories. We ninety-five graduating Seniors wish to express to our school the hope that the history of our future may reflect honor on our Alma Mater.

REYNOLDS JANUARY CLASS HISTORY

By Doug Faircloth, Historian

In June, 1942, our history was read. There's nothing more that need be said. So we won't bother you with ancient history, but give you the data of the last leg of our journey.

In September, 1942, twenty-seven members of Reynolds High School formed themselves into a unit of selfdefense to graduate in January, 1943 Some have already joined the armed services and the rest, with the exception of four boys, will be seeing some kind of service by the last of March. Those who have already left are. Marvin Ellis, elected friendliest in our class, who has joined the para-troopers; and Sam Pinkston, elected most athletic, is at the University of North Carolina preparing himself for service with the armed forces. Those slated to be drafted soon after graduation are: John Alspaugh Thurmond Barron, Elmo Bullard, James Burton, Harold Craver, Clyde Culler, Doug Faircloth, Wharton Graham, Tommy Loman, Jummy Mathis, T. L. Martin, and Jimmy Roberts

REYNOLDS JANUARY CLASS LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Not necessarily because there is such a severe shortage of the following qualities and articles, but rather as a precaution against future rationing problems, do we, the 1943 January Graduating Class of Richard J Reynolds High School hereby make, bequeath, and publish this our Last Will and Testament

The following things we have found useful during our short(?) stay at Reynolds and hope that you may find some use for them also

Article I

Section 1. Not following the regular procedure by leaving the best until the last, we would like at this time, to leave to Mr Joyner, Miss Moore, and all the members of the faculty our appreciation and gratitude for their undying efforts to prepare us for what ever may come

Section 2. To our coaches, faculty advisors of the clubs, and the office force we leave our sincere appreciation for their patience and personal interest in our activities

Article II

Section 1. We, as a class, also leave our uncanny ability to graduate in not more than a year over the required time to the future athletes and present football team

Section 2. We, the boys, would like to leave our sympathy with the coming Juniors in connection with the physical ed slave driver

REYNOLDS JUNE CLASS HISTORY

By Mark Alan Boesser, Historian

We have always known that there was something different about us, this June Class of 1943. We've seemed to sense that ours would be a different history from any that has gone before From the very first we knew there was something in the air—we could feel it Call it premonition or hunch, or what you will, but the history that follows will bear us out—read it and see

We came to this fine Hall of Learning, the R J. Reynolds High School, in January, 1939, but were we shy and timid as freshmen usually are? No We were cock-sure; we knew just what we wanted to study and what we were going to do with the knowledge we gained. So, under the guidance of Miss Dobson and Mrs McDermott, we went to work and elected Ann Cobb and Willis Coggins as our respective presidents, and Jean Walker as our Council representative. Undaunted with heads held high, we faced the buffets of the confusing staircases and of the upper classmen. We had chosen our leaders well, but someone else was doing some picking too. A paper-hanger, made fuehrer of Germany, picked a few buddies that year, one Mussolini and another Hirohito, for playmates. They signed false papers at Munich, and after the paper-hanger, who called himself Hitler, had torn up the papers, he marched through Poland and Austria

But did that worry us? Why, no indeed! We went right on studying through our sophomore year, and there were several outstanding students in our classes too. There were Mary Louise Smith and Mickey Black, whom we elected to be our leading officers, and William McCall, who ably represented us on the Student Council. But events of doubt began to obscure the plans we made for our future. Yes, we had isolationists in Congress who said "It cannot happen here" and we felt pretty safe We still knew exactly what we were doing Other nations were at war, but not ours. Then Hitler took all of Europe he wanted until he met his match in the people of one island who refused to be beaten. He and Mussolini, in destroying Greece, ruined one of the proudest countries of the world Meanwhile, the other trio was still trying to tear China to pieces. But we were the coming generation's best, although doubts as to the certainty of our isolation began to creep into the cracks of our education's armor

So it was with some trepidation that we faced our junior year of 1941. We were beginning to feel that we didn't quite know it "all" and it was with sober consideration that we elected Ed Brenegar and Marvin Ferrell as our class presidents, and Bunny Sprunt and lean Parker as our Council representatives. We participated more fully in the school activities and began to make names for ourselves in various fields of achievement Through the whole-hearted cooperation of our sponsors, Miss Howell and Miss Troutman, our Junior-Senior dances proved successful. As a crowning event, thirteen of our number were inducted into the National Flonor Society. We weren't quite as hard on the freshmen that year, and although we went somewhat for the zoot suit and the jitterbug step and thoroughly enjoyed Mr. Brausa's swing band, we realized that some of the graduates were going for other things. Some had joined the Canadian Royal Air Porce and others were joining the armed forces of our nation with a certain grim determination. The clouds grew blacker, and on December 7th of that year the storm broke. "Pearl Harbor", a name never to be forgotten' You know what it meant-WAR

And there we were. We had reached our senior year and by that time we felt that we knew absolutely nothing about what was ahead Our cock-sureness was gone. There was confusion in our minds instead of a definite knowledge as to our education and how we were to use it But the student body selected Nelson Hendrix the president of our school and Bill Plonk as Speaker of the House of Representatives. Under the sponsorship of Miss Whitley, our class officers were Bill Crews, president, John Richardson, vice president. Jean Joyner, secretary: and Ed Brenegar, treasurer. and we were further represented on the Council by Tommy Carpenter as vice president, Bunny Sprunt as secretary. Ruth Anderson, Mary Louise Smith. and Mark Boesser But then to add to our bewilderment, the draft age limit was lowered to eighteen, and Nelson Hendrix and Wade Moser, the president of the Honor Society, went to college to hasten their education However, their positions were capably filled by Tommy Carpenter and Bunny Sprunt respectively. And there were the famous Monogram dances and extra curricular activities to add to our pleasant memories. Our teams continued to merit our pride in spite of the increasing difficulties of transportation due to the war, and we made the most of this, our last year at Reynolds. In the meantime our armed forces made some headway, too, and all of our allies played a big part in fighting to a standstill the three now known as the Axis But now what of us-the little June Class of '437

Well-this of us! We thought we knew it all when we came here, but now we realize how little we did know then, and we have begun to understand that there are big things at stake in this world today and each one of us has a part to play in it-and we will play that part, be it as a WAVE, a WAAC, or a Marine, Sailor, Chaplain, or in whatever field of service we may find ourselves, or if not in the armed forces -then in ardent preparation for our part in the years that are to come-for our God and our Country have need of us in preserving this world for peace and happiness

So here is a toast to thee,
June Class of Forty Three,
May each one who shares your name
Add to our high school's fame
May knowledge gathered here
Shine as a beacon clear
Down the years that are to come,
Leading each student home
To his life's work—sure that he Or she, as the case may be,
Is doing the best in each place
For the welfare of our race
So shall each be proud to be Of the June Class — Forty Three

GRAY HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1943

Evelyn Brock

At last we have come to the threshold of life, and we must enter the door alone and face facts without the aid of teachers or fellow-students. As we make plans for the future, our minds slowly visualize the past

It was in September, 1939, that we, as freshmen, timidly entered into the flow of activities at South High School During those first few weeks we were so homesick for our old grammar schools that many of us would have gladly gone back. However, as we became accustomed to the ways" of the school and got acquainted with more of the students, we felt perfectly at home

The "highlight" of our freshman year was the changing of the name of the school from South High to James A Gray High School

Entering the school next year as sophomores, we really felt quite "grown" We were divided into various homerooms, however, some of the members of our class made places for themselves in the student organization

Since our principal, Mr K G Phillips, was made superintendent of the Gastonia City Schools, we started our juntor year under the capable direction of our new principal, Mr J. A Woodward. This year we were an organized class with Jack McGee, Paul Snider Nina Braddock, and Betty Craver as our officers. Paul Snider and Douglas. Livengood each served a semester as vice-president of the school, and Betty Miller was secretary. Jack McGee won the Junior Chamber of Commerce Oratorical Contest. Percy Wall won the honor of being fifth best debater in North Carolina. Edna Lee Stout, Paul Snider, Forest Bates, Vertie Mae Spry, Alice Mae Cude, Jack McGee, and John Gatewood were inducted into the National Honor Society, and Paul Snider was elected state president of the soetv. Meanwhile, other members of our class continued to hold offices of importance

Then we came to the last mile, the mile which we are now completing. We are grateful for the help which we have received from our sponsors. Miss Nancy Raper: Miss Clara Tiller, Mrs. Virginia Sherrill, and Miss Fannie Mecum, head sponsor. We elected Ernest Ray Williams, Elinor Crews, Alice Mae Cude, and Vertie Mae Spry to lead us. Honor has come to many of our number Two more of our members, Evelyn Brock and Bettie Willard, were inducted into the National Honor Society. Stanley Pierce, Ray Mathis, and Sherwood Pinkston were chosen for the all-city football team. Herbert Baker has just completed his second successive term as president of the school. Valia Hutchins served as secretary of the school the first semester; and Bettie Willard, the second. Paul Snider was again elected as school vice-president. The Junior Chamber of Commerce Oratorical Contest and the Americanism Essay Contest were also won by him. Elinor Crews was chosen for our D.A. R. representative.

Even though we have been a busy class, we remember what Gray has meant to us, and our hearts shall always turn to praise our dear Alma Mater. We shall always remember the things she has taught us and the things for which she stands

GRAY LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1943

Vertie Mae Spry

We, the Senior class of James A Gray High School, City of Winston Salem, County of Forsyth, and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory (we hope) and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make, ordain and declare this to be positively our Last Will and Testament

After all our lawful or unlawful debts are paid and all of our history outlines are turned in, we leave

First To Mr. Woodward Miss Spainhour, our sponsors, and the entire faculty, our deepest appreciation for the way they have stood by us in our ups and downs (mostly downs) We hope that the next class will not cause quite as many headoches, gray hairs, and sleepless nights

Second We leave our prized seats in assembly to the present juniors with the hope that they find a parking place outside for their gum before making their dignified entry

Third: Rachel Wagoner leaves her much-used comb to Annie Mae Potts because hers is sure to be worn into nothing in the near future

Fourth Ray Mathis leaves his famous football to Douglas Calloway with the sincere trust that he will continue to bestow upon it the familiar honors and glory

Fifth: The two Dorothy Marshalls leave the confusion of identical names to the Betty Smiths with best wishes

Sixth: Edna Lee Stout gives over all of her home work to R L. Pardue

Seventh: Marie Dwiggins, Helen Klutz, and Vertice Clodfelter hand over their quiet ways to Mary Jane Johnson, Donavee Collier, and Frances Jean Scott

GRAY PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1943

Nina Braddock

Edna Lee Stout and I began to wonder what the future holds in store for us and the other Gray High Graduates of 43. At that instant a fortune teller's sign caught our eyes, and we knew that this was our solution. As the fortune teller gazed into her crystal, we mysteriously left the present and went into the future, the year 1953

There we saw in the business world a secretary in almost every office. Alice Mae Cude was employed in the Kelly Photography Company as secretary, while Edna Lee Stout was serving in the same capacity to a prominent lawyer. Forest Bates Vertie Mae Spry, Rachel Wagoner, Evelyn Brock, Charles Jarvis. Opal Dye, Charlotte Ferguson, Dorothy L. Marshall, Dorothy Tesh, and Ruby Boger had also made outstanding names for themselves as stenographers.

At Fussell and Williams Exclusive Ladies Ready To Wear Shoppe appeared Stella Mae Moore, modeling an evening gown, and among the most popular of the Jean Powers group we found Betty Miller, Betty Craver, Margaret Prestwood, Doris Lee, Dorothy Atkinson, Ruby Byrd, Naomi Wagoner, and Doris Dillon

Some of our boys then appeared Percy Wall, Professor of law at Wake Forest: Lucas Conrad, foremost airplane designer; and Paul Flowers, publisher of the Winston-Salem "Times." Members of his staff were Jim Harris, editor of "Advice to the Love-Lorn"; Bill Holt, sports' editor, Robert Fletcher, Winfred Robertson, and Kelly Hoots, news correspondents.

Linville Lawrence was Warden for the State Pen; Ernest Ray Williams, Merry Go-Round Operator for the famous Emor Crews Carnival: Paul Snider, Pop-Corn Manager at the Hollytood, and Claude Crocker, chief Bar Tender at Eddie Wagner's Peanut Bar Candy Store, passed one after the other

Next the Crystal took us back to Gray High, where we found among the new to access to textook kint. I Brooks, Carter, Oakley, E. Kimball, and Helms.

Rosena Burton, Nelphia Foster, Grace Lemard and Director Mers and as man

A lespt lappe rid me is the interior out to discovered to the sale of the rist of son sentee at the superior recents disk checking the nurses' register, on which we saw names of nurses Lawages, Supp Gray, Vogler, Essex, Turner, and Reavis.

Again the scene changed a sign which read, "Justice of the Peace, Sherwood Pinkston" slowly appeared. Here we found breathing their last breath of freedom Homer Freeze, Haskell Ferguson, James Worrell, Charles Bunn, Paul Gilley, Jack Baynes, Loyd Stinson, and Hylton Crews Who the unlucky brides were could not be foreseen

The crystal turned from matrimony to Hollywood, there we saw Womble, Norman, and Bagwell as noted Hollywood producers. Paye Wilson, Marie Pandatar in I learned the NGN studios. Beecher Casey had won, along with Annie Lee Hair, the Academy Award. Kathryn Green, in Hollywood competing for the title of "Miss America" was having her hair waved at the Gordon Beauty Shop, where Vertice Clodfelter, Hazel Ervin, and Doris Carroll were beauticians

Into our view appeared the exclusive Baker School. The president, Herbert was seen in his office consoling a homesick girl Juanita Bradford filled the principal's chair; Norma Brooks was music teacher; Lida Dunnagan and Valia directors and Betty Willard, chemistry teacher

We were amazed to see that S. A. Kress had changed to Adams and Kreager, Inc. Shouse and Bledsoe were serving on the board of directors

Beautiful music filled the air We were delighted to hear the voices of Stanford and H Baker in the "Grand Old

As the crystal turned, we learned that the Masten-McGee Circus had opened, leaturing Jack Sink as the most hilarious clown in existence; Harry Hemrick, the main feature in the monkey show; Zebedee Crews, lion trainer, and Teresa Piatt, snake charmer

In the sport world we saw Gilda Gray competing in the international tennis tournament, Swink and Potter, basketball coaches at Salem College, Mathis, football coach at Notre Dame; and Pierce, coach for Georgia

Strains of our National Anthem were heard as army officers R. Teague, Allgood, Huffman, Bauguss, and Russell marched along. The music suddenly changed to "Anchors Aweigh and there in their navy uniforms were Voss, Sprinkle, Livengood, Holland, Sechrest, Deviney, and G. Teague, "Leathernecks" Eagleson, Evans, Wooten, Bill Adams, C McGee; and Devine passed by to the tune of the "Marine Hymn." These graduates continued to serve after the war

The word "matrimony" again appeared, and written beneath it were the names Drum, McMillan, Anderson, Johnson, Holton, Mills, M. Wilson, Leazer, Burchette, Kiser, and Stoker We found Martin, Campbell, Wooten, burks, and Joyner at a meeting of local assistators.

As the crystal turned, great drops of perspiration rolled off as if someone were working hard. It revealed Helen Fishel and Marilyn Sells giving reducing lessons

The crystal cleated, we left the future to re-enter the present and to wonder whether all this we saw would really come to pass

GRAY CLASS POEM

Out upon life s golden pathway. Where the future now is calling. Opens up a new horizon Bright and shining, yet appalling

Life, which only is beginning,
Dost thou future treasures bring us?
Shall we find just sweet contentment?
No, our fate will ne'er be thus!

Bitter strife and many hardships We shall meet upon life a highway. Courage, patience, truth, and valor Shall meet their test in home and byway.

Gray has for our tasks prepared us, Day by day while playing, working. Now we face thee, Life and Future, Unafraid of shadows lurking

If you can cook in vast amounts when Reynolds pupils all about you

Are starving fast and blaming it on you

If you can make toast without burning it to a crisp through and through,

But make allowance for good browning too:

If you can boil water to exactly the proper degree

Or make a cake with tempting Ic-

Or slice bread so that every two pieces in size will agree

And often have no knife for slicing.

If you can string a string bean and still leave most of the bean

Or bake fine biscuits too soft to use as bricks,

If you can cook a mess and still keep the entire kitchen clean,

And if you know all kinds of hashmaking tricks.

If you can concoct a nice, delicious Mullican Stew

From all kinds of unappetizing left over vegetables and goo.

Miss Rosa Tinder believes that as a maid you might do,

So apply for a position in the cafeteria-PDQ

Reynolds, Hanes, and Gray seniors and graduates—we make a direct appeal to you to prepare yourself for the future. Let Draughon Business College give you the extra training necessary. A good course in Filing, Office Machines, or Cost Accounting is suggested. See us for any course in business training. Summer term begins June 7, and Fall term Sept. 6

MILL NERY - DRESS S - COATS - LIN FRE - HONERY - SH MEN AND BOY'S WEAR AND FASHEN ACCE While plans for her vacation danced in her head

And Betty Jean Voss was burning her thinking caps

To settle her brain for several long summer naps,—

When out in the hall there arose such a clatter,

Paula Alspaugh ran to see what was the matter

Away to the landing she flew like a swift flash

Unlocking the door Miss Voss was trying to crash

The look on her face was sufficient to show

How much work must be done before they could go.

When what to their wondering eyes should appear

But Mr Joyner, suffering from gas rationing and driving a steer

With a commanding tongue he bellowed orders so quick

His assistants feared him as the sailors, Moby Dick

For all this excess labor no one was to blame.

And he hung up his hat, dropped in his chair, and called them by name

Now Doris' Now, Bernice' Now, Paula and Betty Jean

Recheck all the files here, and make this office clean!

On the accounts of the stamp sales and the supply room budget

Add and read till your lists all coincide diget for diget

As the minutes before the great task at hand like a wild hurricane fly

When bountiful bevies of mistakes arise, the sun approached its high,

So their three lunch boxes filled with sandwiches were scampered through

And twas a fine meal with cookies and candy-and coffee too!

Then each spoke not a word, but went straight to work

And filed all the records, then turning with a jerk

They sprang to the bus-stop as Mr Joyner fled to his fillie

Off they went with facial expressions all positively silly,

But they were heard to exclaim, ere they rode out of sight.

Eureka! Summer vacation! Our fondest delight'

WHAT OF Jomorrow?

Drenched in blood and scorched with the flames of blazing guns, the world must look utterly hopeless to the thousands of young Americans finishing high school and looking into the future. It calls for high courage to face it. But, after all, that is what has made the America of the past and will build the America of the future—the high courage and faith of its youth.

The high courage and faith of young Americans, dying on a hundred far-flung battle fronts, that is your assurance of the future. Your assurance that America will always be a land where freedom lives, a land where you will be free to work and play, a land of opportunities greater than man has ever known before.

So, be of good courage—your future, with the future of America, is being paid for right this minute in young American blood. A future that will be your responsibility to keep bright and untarnished. You dare not fail it or break faith with it.
